

Assignment

Make a GUI:

- Upload a video from the user interface
- Generate frames from the uploaded video
- Input: Video and output path location for generated frames
- save them as per the input path location
- Show any random images from the generated frames to the user's end
- Try to cover all the test cases
- Make the GUI user friendly and interactive
- Make sure to do exceptional handling